ECOHAUS COLLECTING DONATIONS FOR NORTHWEST HARVEST THIS DECEMBER

Who: ecohaus

What: Hosting a food drive to benefit Northwest Harvest

When: December 1 through December 30, 2008

Where: 4121 1st Avenue South, Seattle 98134; 13131 NE 20th Street, Bellevue 98005

Seattle and Bellevue, WA 11.28.08 Green building retailer ecohaus will be collecting donations for Northwest Harvest with a food drive through the month of December. From December 1 through December 30, we will collect non-perishable food items at our stores in Bellevue and Seattle. Those who bring in donations can enter to win a $100 gift certificate to ecohaus.

We are looking for donations of non-perishable food and baby items that are nutritious and low in sugars - for example: oatmeal, whole grain pastas, canned fruits and vegetables, canned chili or soup, as well as baby formula, diapers and canned milk. For more information about suitable donations, please visit www.northwestharvest.org.

Donations are being accepted at all ecohaus locations during business hours.

Seattle store: 4121 1st Avenue South, Seattle 98134 (Monday-Friday, 8a-6p; Saturday, 10a-5p; Sunday, 11a-5p)

Bellevue store: 13131 NE 20th Street, Bellevue 98005 (Monday-Saturday, 9a-6p; Sunday, 10a-5p)

Questions about the food drive should be directed to Susanna Schultz at 206-315-1958 or susannas@ecohaus.com

About Northwest Harvest:

Northwest Harvest is Washington's own statewide hunger relief agency. They secure more than 18 million pounds of food annually for distribution to nearly 300 food banks and meal programs throughout Washington. More than half of those they serve are children and the elderly, the most vulnerable members of our population.
